BOBBI PALMER BIOGRAPHY

Bobbi is The Dating and Relationship Coach for Women over 40 and founder of Date Like a Grownup. Fed up and determined to succeed in the man-thing, Bobbi figured it out and became a first time bride at age 47. She now teaches women around the world to do what she did: take the same control of their love life that they enjoy in the rest of their life...and write their own grownup love story.

Bobbi Palmer is The Dating and Relationship Coach for Women over 40 and the founder of Date Like a Grownup

[\[www.datelikeagrownup.com\]](http://www.datelikeagrownup.com) – a company she built around her own personal story and passion for creating an ‘After 40 Romance Revolution’ for women around the world.

Like the women she supports in their 40s, 50s and beyond, Bobbi was smart, successful, and reluctantly single at age 45. Fed up and determined to succeed in ‘the man-thing’, Bobbi developed (and lived!) the very 6-Step System she has been teaching in her highly successful expert coaching programs.

Bobbi became a first-time bride at age 47. Now joyfully married and walking her talk every day, Bobbi
